

211 "T" zinced steel swing (with two seats)

Realized according to European Standard EN1176. Steel zinced or painted for outside structure. Constituted by a robust steel beam INGHISATO in the ground for 45 cm, heat zincified or painted according to the indications of the purchaser. It has the great advantage of being able to be inserted into narrow places being a swing to jerk. The two seats can be both flat in anti-shock rubber with internal soul in section bar from aluminium and chains to narrow stitch and zincified to fire or to cage or one of a type and other of other. Assembling with galvanized steel bolts 8.8 and self-locking nuts. Covernuts elements in accordance with the law made by colored nylon

